

Maria K. Bonner

Senior Manager, Regulatory Compliance

BACKGROUND • Public health regulation and policy

SPECIALTY • Regulatory research and analysis

Maria K. Bonner is a Senior Manager in Greenleaf's Regulatory Compliance group. Bonner's professional and educational background give her the experience necessary to consult with FDA-regulated clients on enforcement and compliance matters.

Bonner was formerly at White & Case LLP DC, where the firm represented and advised private companies and foreign sovereigns in the resolution of multi-million and billion USD disputes.

She previously had worked at the firm as a summer associate and also summured at K&L Gates LLP Charleston in the litigation practice group.

In addition, Bonner was formerly an Analyst at Rock Creek Global Advisors LLC (RCGA), an international business and economic public policy consultancy with multinational corporate clients in a range of industries, including pharmaceuticals and biotechnology. There she worked principally with RCGA's Managing Directors -- Joshua B. Bolten, former Chief of Staff to President George W. Bush and Daniel M. Price, former Deputy National Security Advisor for International Economic Affairs and G8/G20 Sherpa for President George W. Bush. Bonner conducted industry research; provided news and policy briefings; and wrote speeches, presentations, discussion points, memoranda, and position papers for Managing Directors and clients.

Additionally, Bonner has interned with Judge Richard J. Leon of the U.S. District Court for Washington, D.C.; Congresswoman Marsha Blackburn (R-TN); and the White House Writers Group.

Bonner earned her JD from Georgetown University Law Center, where she focused on the law and regulation of global health technologies, including pharmaceuticals and vaccines; public-private partnerships in the global health space; disability law and policy; and national security.

Bonner graduated from Georgetown University summa cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa with her B.A. in English and a minor in Theology.
